

CROWE & DUNLEVY
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS AT LAW

Indian Law & Gaming Practice

The Indian Law and Gaming Group provides strategic legal advice combining the collective experience of Crowe & Dunlevy attorneys. The Firm represents Indian tribal governments and Alaskan native entities on matters relating to sovereignty, economic development and governmental objectives.

Crowe & Dunlevy provides counsel regarding the complex matters of federal Indian law and the interrelationship between state and tribal laws. The Firm works closely with tribal leadership and tribal government attorneys, as well as others doing business with tribes, to provide advice forming the foundation for well-reasoned and informed policy and strategic decisions and the implementation thereof to fulfill clients’ objectives.

D. Michael McBride is chairman of the Firm’s Indian Law and Gaming Practice Group. Mr. McBride has dedicated his legal career to Indian law for over a decade and a half, and has practiced primarily in the areas of federal Indian law and gaming, as well as complex federal, civil and criminal litigation. Mr. McBride has served as the Attorney General for the Seminole Nation of Oklahoma and the Sac and Fox Nation and is currently a Justice for the Supreme Court of the Pawnee Nation. He is General Counsel to the Federal Bar Association’s National Board of Directors and previously served terms as Chair of the FBA’s Indian Law Section, the largest Indian law organization in the country, a Circuit Vice-President and as a Chapter President in Tulsa. Mr. McBride is also past chair of the Oklahoma Bar Association’s Indian Law Section.

The Firm

Crowe & Dunlevy is one of the largest law firms in Oklahoma with offices in the state’s three largest cities: Oklahoma City, Tulsa and Norman. The Firm was founded in 1902 and has grown to more than 110 lawyers. The Firm’s lawyers represent clients in all areas of law, including complex business transactions, litigation in both state and federal courts, litigation and regulatory and administrative proceedings in the area of natural resources, energy and environmental law, and all types of alternative dispute resolution.

Networks

Crowe & Dunlevy's position in the regional and Oklahoma legal markets has led to our selection as the sole Oklahoma member of several networks of attorneys, helping us serve clients with needs throughout the United States and the world. Crowe & Dunlevy is the sole Oklahoma member of these networks.

Lex Mundi

Our membership in Lex Mundi offers a global perspective when needed, providing an exchange of information and a forum for the discussion of professional and substantive legal developments around the world.

State Law Resources

State Law Resources is a national network of independent law firms—one from each state and two from the District of Columbia—each selected for their demonstrated abilities in handling administrative, regulatory and government relations issues at the state and federal level.

Employment Law Alliance

As the most comprehensive network of employment and labor law attorneys in the world, the Employment Law Alliance is comprised of 2,000 of the finest employment and labor lawyers from each state and more than 50 nations.

Res Loquitor

Res Loquitor maintains The Select List, a group of law firms that defend life, health, and disability insurance carriers from litigation.

Quality service at Oklahoma rates

Crowe & Dunlevy clients benefit from high quality, efficient service at reasonable costs. We are sensitive to concerns about growing legal fees and we avoid the practice of staffing cases in a manner in which lawyers provide unnecessary services.

In May 2008, Forbes.com named Oklahoma City the “most recession-proof city” in the nation. In April 2009, Forbes.com named Tulsa the fifth “most livable city” in the nation, and Oklahoma City the sixth. We’ve known for a long time that Tulsa, Oklahoma City and Norman are the best kept secrets in the nation. Now it appears the rest of the nation is learning why it makes economic sense to do business in Oklahoma.

Diversity

Crowe & Dunlevy is committed to diversity as a core value. We recognize that diversity is fundamental to our success, as well as the success of our clients, the communities we serve and our judicial system. Crowe & Dunlevy will continue to work to break down barriers to equal opportunity. We celebrate and value the perspectives and varied experiences that enrich a truly diverse workplace.

Crowe & Dunlevy strives to create an atmosphere in which each lawyer and staff person can grow and develop to his or her fullest potential. Crowe & Dunlevy knows that diversity fosters an environment for creative thinking, and innovative solutions to client problems. Diversity is essential to the success of its legal practice because it allows Crowe & Dunlevy to best serve its clients. Crowe & Dunlevy strives to be a model of diversity that others will follow

Leadership in the community

The Crowe & Dunlevy Foundation was created in 1985 to provide financial support to a wide variety of deserving charitable and non-profit organizations. To date, over 500 arts, education, social services, healthcare and civic organizations have benefited from the Foundation's giving. In addition, our attorneys and professionals volunteer their time and talent, many holding board and other leadership positions.
