Margaret (“Peggy”) Millikin is a director and co-chair of the Firm's International Practice Group. Peggy assists clients with international business issues, particularly in the technology arena, and offers guidance for international clients establishing business in the U.S. She has worked on cross-border transactions involving many jurisdictions, including Finland, Belgium, the United Kingdom, Germany, Italy, France, Spain, Switzerland, The Netherlands, Czech Republic, Russia, Japan, China, India, South Korea, Australia, Brazil, Mexico, and Canada.

Peggy also assists clients in complying with the various U.S. export control regimes, including the Commerce Department Export Administration Regulations and the International Traffic in Arms Regulations. She helps clients implement export management and compliance programs to mitigate the risks of noncompliance and related sanctions associated with exporting controlled items and employing foreign nationals. Her evaluations cover a variety of sectors, including chemicals and chemical processing, fibers and fiberizing, manufacturing processes, polymers, data processing, energy, and industrial equipment.

Her clients include Fortune 500 companies, small businesses and non-profit organizations. In connection with Crowe & Dunlevy Lex Mundi affiliates, Peggy offers seamless global legal service to clients with cross-border concerns and provides guidance on doing business in many jurisdictions of the world.
